

Summer Ministry Intern Job Description

Marion Methodist Church
Marion, Iowa

- Because Marion Methodist Church has a history and desire to raise up persons for professional ministry.
- Because most of those persons that have been trained have taken roles in youth ministry, pastoral leadership, and/or music.
- Marion Methodist can provide a broad variety of opportunities for experiential ministry development.
- Selection based on the home church's recommendation, campus participation, and compatibility with the ministry team as discerned by the Lead Pastor.

The benefits:

1. The benefits to the denomination would include raising up or growing a person to be a Ministry Leader in the greater church.
 - a. This person will sit under proficient leaders for spiritual and experiential ministry opportunities.
 - b. The Intern could gain some guided and supervised leadership experiences in youth, music, Christian camping, worship leading, and pastoral function.
 - c. The Intern could work with a variety of persons, groups, and ministries within the church to gain a greater understanding of how the church works.
2. The benefits to Marion Methodist Church would include:
 - a. A jolt of energy to our ministries during a time when many groups take a summer break.
 - b. An opportunity for a fresh approach to leadership that may come from sources outside our current leadership and church style.
 - c. To develop a short-term program that could include service ministry, music ministry, etc.

Tasks:

1. To be defined by the Lead Pastor with consideration given to the needs of the church, skills, and passions of the intern, and opportunities in which both the church and student can grow.
2. Accountability will be to the Lead Pastor. This is a "first" professional ministry position and is to be guided and directed by the pastors.

Salary:

- $4,375 salary for a 10-week total program completed sometime (as negotiated) between May 15 - August 15.

Pre-requisites for the position:

- College student with an interest and passion for ministry.
- To have a profound faith in Christ as evidenced by their living.
